Population, 2,179; of village, 271. It is situated near the ninth lock of the Grand Canal, and close to the line of Coras Iompair Eireann, of which it is the first station from Dublin. PHŒNIX PARK. paire rionnuisce.

The Phoenix Park, contiguous to the N.W. boundary of Dublin city, and N. of the river Liffey, comprises an area of 1,760 statute acres, and is about seven miles in circumference. Irish antiquarians derive its name from a spring of limpid water, in Irish fionn-uisge, pronounced fin-uiske, and gradually corrupted into phoenix. The greater portion of it formed part of the possessions of the knights Hospitallers, and on the suppression of the monasteries was surrendered to Henry VIII., and was afterwards enclosed for a deer park by the Duke of Ormonde, in the reign of Charles II. Several additions were subsequently made to it, and the whole was laid out in an ornamental manner by the Earl of Chesterfield, when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who also erected in it a pillar thirty feet high. surmounted by a phoenix rising out of the flames. In allusion to its popular name, and caused it to be thrown open as a place of recreation. There is also a splendid equestrian statue of General Gough. In the Park are also the Wellington Testimonial, a lofty obelisk of granite, 150 feet high; and the Zoological Gardens.

Rathfarnham, a parish and village in Uppercross and Rathdown baronies, Dublin county, four miles south from the G.P.O., Dublin, comprising an area of 2,581 acres. Population, about 10,000. It is situated on the road to Whitechurch, and near where the Military-road commences that crosses the mountains into Wicklow county. The village was included in the City of Dublin under the Local Government (Dublin) act, 1930, as from the 1st October, 1930. The Roman Catholic Church is a large building in the main street. The Loreto Convent, in the vicinity, is a modern building, attached to which there is an elegant chapel, a female free school, also a ladies' boarding and day school. The Novitiate College of the Augustinians and St. Columba's College are in the neighbourhood. There is also a Dispensary and a District Justice Courthouse. The bridge of Rathfarnham, over the river Dodder, is several hundred yards from the village, the approach to which is rising ground, thickly shaded in summer by the trees of the demesnes on each side. The neighbourhood abounds in pretty seats and villas, commanding rich views of the Dublin mountains and bay. At Grange is situated the "Priory." the residence of the famous John Philpot Curran. The castle of Rathfarnham was built by Archbishop Loftus in the reign of Elizabeth. One of the entrances to the demesne, fronting the Dodder, is in the style of a Roman triumphal arch. The entrance to the castle is by a portico of eight Doric columns that support a dome painted in fresco with the signs of the zodiac. Ballyboden, a village in the parish of Whitechurch, is about one and a quarter miles farther on, and comprises an area of two acres. There is a Postal and Telegraph Office in Rathfarnham.
