Vote 2 Luke Moriarty

John Curran is the sitting TD for Dublin Mid-West and is married to Shauna, they have two children; one is in primary school and the other studying for the Junior Certificate. John and Shauna have lived in the constituency of Dublin Mid West all their lives.

John holds a degree in Commerce from UCD. Prior to becoming a full-time politician he ran a successful communications business. John is a keen sports fan. He is an active member of the GAA and a loyal follower of the Dublin GAA teams.

John topped the poll in the 2002 General Election. In 1999 John was elected as a Councillor in South Dublin County Council. Since being elected, An Taoiseach Bertie Ahern appointed John to the Dáil Public Accounts Committee and the Oireachtas Education and Science Committee, The National Economic and Social Forum (NESF) in 2004 and the Oireachtas Committee on Child Protection in 2006.

John opened the first Constituency Advice Clinics in Dublin Mid West in both Clondalkin and Lucan Village centres. He has also personally attended weekly constituency clinics throughout Dublin Mid-West.

John has been involved in much progress in Dublin Mid West under the current Fianna Fáil led government and is working locally to ensure more progress and success for Dublin Mid-West.

Progress Includes

- Major investment in local sports & leisure facilities
- A massive school building programme that has seen new schools built throughout the constituency
- Investment in School Summer Works Schemes that have improved & upgraded local schools
- Steady stream of new jobs created for Dublin Mid West e.g. Grange Castle, City West, Park West & the new Hermitage Hospital in Lucan
- Increased investment for CCTV on local streets to combat anti-social behaviour & crime
- The N4, N7 and M50 upgrades
- Barrier free tolling on the M50 Toll Bridge
- Commencement of Metro West for Clondalkin and Lucan
- Lucan and Palmerstown Luas Line
- Extension of LUAS to Citywest, Saggart
- Improvement of all local bus services including the new 151 Bus Route

I hope you will give me your No.1 vote on polling day. If you have already decided to give your first preference to another candidate, I would be grateful if you would consider me for your next highest preference. Please give your next available preference to my Fianna Fáil colleague Luke Moriarty.
