Real Plan Better Future

A chara,

Our country faces serious problems right now. But with the right policies and a new approach to politics, I believe they can be overcome.

That's why I believe that parties should put aside the normal political games and set out a full, honest plan to deal with the crisis at hand and move Ireland towards a better future.

In the short time that I have been leader of my party, I have talked about the need to learn the lessons of the past. I have worked with others to set before you a plan which will do three key things:

- >> Revive the economy and restore the public finances.
- >> Create jobs.
- >> Fundamentally reform politics and government.

I understand that people are suffering. The corrective actions and necessary reforms in our plan will help them. In contrast, Fine Gael, Labour and Sinn Féin's conflicting policies and empty promises would make matters worse.

On Friday 25th February, by voting for John Curran you can support a candidate who is committed to serving your community and supporting the actions our country needs to overcome this crisis and secure a better future.
