NEW PADDY POWER JOBS GREAT NEWS FOR TALLAGHT

The announcement that Paddy Power bookmakers is to provide 500 new jobs has been hailed as great news for Tallaght and the rest of the country by Dublin South West Fianna Fáil TD Charlie O'Connor. The new jobs will be rolled out over the next three years, with 375 to be located in Paddy Power's international online business in Tallaght.

The additional 125 jobs will be created in Paddy Power's retail business throughout Ireland.

"This is fantastic news for Tallaght and the rest of the country," said Deputy O'Connor. "Paddy Power has already provided strong investment and employment opportunities in the area and over the course of the next three years, we will see a significant expansion of their operation in Tallaght."

"Already there are 725 high quality jobs being offered to Paddy Power employees in Tallaght and this announcement will see that figure grow to more than 1,100 by December 2013. Most of these jobs are in e-commerce, technology, quantitative research, online marketing and risk management."

"The employees working in Tallaght have been thoroughly dedicated to their roles and have helped make paddypower.com a truly international success, with more than 600,000 customers in 162 countries making use of their service. As their operation grows in the years to come, I have no doubt we will see even more success for their operation and the employees in Tallaght will continue to provide great support to the company."

"I would like to congratulate Paddy Power on bringing these jobs to Tallaght and I look forward to seeing more local people take up these great employment opportunities as they are advertised over the course of the next few years," Deputy O'Connor concluded.
