PHŒNIX PARK.

paire rionnuisce.

The Phoenix Park, contiguous to the N.W. boundary of Dublin city, and N. of the river Lifley, comprises an area of 1,760 statute acres, and is about seven miles in circumference. Irish antiquarians derive its name from a spring of limpid water, in Irish fionn-uisge, pronounced fin-uiske, and gradually corrupted into phoenix. The greater portion of it formed part of the possessions of the Knights Hospitallers, and on the suppression of the monasteries was surrendered to Henry VIII., and was afterwards enclosed for a deer park by the Duke of Ormonde, in the reign of Charles II. Several additions were subsequently made to it, and the whole was laid out in an ornamental manner by the Earl of Chesterfield, when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who also erected in it a pillar thirty feet high, surmounted by a phoenix rising out of the flames in allusion to its popular name, and caused it to be thrown open as a place of recreation. There is also a splendid equestrian statue of General Gough. In the Park are also the Wellington Testimonial, a lofty obelisk of granite, 150 feet high; and the Zoological Gardens.
